Annual pension charges in the Education Department.

253. Mr. Joseph Pettah.—Will the Government be pleased to furnish a statement, showing the annual charges on the Pension list, from 1101 to 1107 (both inclusive), on account of (a) retired officers, clerks, peons of the Education Department; (b) retired teachers, clerks and peons of the Sirkar Primary Schools, and (c) retired teachers, clerks and peons of the Sirkar Secondary Schools?

Mr. P. V. Subramania Ayyar.—Please see the statement appended. (Appendix I.)

Provision for the issue of licenses for private markets in the State.

254. Mr. P. Kumaran Ezhuthassan.—Will the Government be pleased to state under what regulation and under what provision of the said Regulation are licenses for holding private markets granted in Cochin State?

Rama Varmha Tampuran.—Licenses for holding private markets are granted under sections 162 to 180 of the Cochin Municipal Regulation XI of 1096.

Mr. P. Kumaran Ezhuthassan.—Can I take it that all the licenses now granted for private markets are granted under the Municipal Regulation?

Rama Varmha Tampuran.—Government is informed that in the case of arecanut markets, they do not exactly follow the schedule of fees prescribed in the case of other markets. With that exception the Municipal Regulation applies throughout the State.

Mr. K. G. Nayar.—Under what law are these arecanut markets governed?

Rama Varmha Tampuran.—They existed long before 1085 when the Regulation was first introduced. In those days they used to collect fees according to some set standards and standards are followed now.

Mr. K. G. Nayar.—Is there anything written, any contract to show in what manner and under what authority they did their trade?

Rama Varmha Tampuran.—I do not think there is any written order, that it may be collected in such and such a manner. That has been a long custom prevalent for years.

Mr. P. Kumaran Ezhuthassan.—May I know whether, with the exception of the amounts collected, in other respects the licenses were granted under the provisions of the Municipal Regulation?
